10. GENERAL BUSINESS:	<ul> <li>46. Board Appointed Positions         Discussion held proposed changes would bring Constitution inline with working practices of Bowls North. Proposed changes are to index references, wording and banking procedures. The following will need to addressed moving forward, Rotational Terms, Board Directors.     </li> <li>RESOLUTION:         That the proposed changes to Bowls North Constitution with amendments as discussed be accepted and presented to Bowls North members at Annual General Meeting on 21 May 2023.     </li> <li>Moved by: John Glisson Seconded: Rae Simpson Carried 11/0</li> <li>BOWLS NORTH &amp; BOWLS TASMANIA FINALS ELIGIBILITY QUERY:</li> </ul>	BN Secretary to send motion to Clubs.
	Query raised on eligibility for Bowls North pennant finals and Bowls Tasmania State Finals. Bowls Tasmania set Conditions of Play for State events. Bowls Tasmania refer to eligibility requirements of each region for State Pennant Finals. Division Six (6) pennant winners can use subs in Bowls Tasmania Sate Pennant Finals. Substitute players used must meet Bowls North eligibility requirements. Further discussion held on the interpretation of Bowls North Conditions of Play 3.26. Wording needs to be addressed in the Conditions of Play for 2023-24 season. Games played as substitute player for another club, should be counted for eligibility to participate in finals for current club. Clubs are responsible to ensure players are eligible to participate in the final's series under the Bowls North current Conditions of Play.	Resolved  Refer to Match Committee
	<ul> <li>4. UMPIRES PANEL: Issued raised by Greg Thomas, regarding the need to appoint an Umpires Panel within the Bowls North Region to address issues that have arisen. No complaints have been received by BN Match Committee or Board regarding any issues with Umpires. Umpires are governed by Bowls Tasmania guidelines and any issues are to be addressed by the Bowls Tasmania Umpires Director. Issue also raised regarding the new Crystal MarK Laws of Bowls which are implemented. Meeting to be scheduled for all umpires to discuss new rules.</li> <li>5. BN SURVEY: Scott Zeuschner spoke on positive responses received. Reminder to be placed on social media and website regarding BN Survey Ballot that is being conducted by the BN Match Committee. The opinion of all members is vital for the future success of Bowls North. data is to be collated and passed on to the incoming board and match committee for the 2023-24 season.</li> <li>6. BN GALA DAY:</li> </ul>	BN Secretary to follow up.
	Positive feedback from players and spectators has been received regarding Bowls North Finals Gala Day. Comments that had been placed on social media was read to the BN Board. President	On-going

10. GENERAL BUSINESS:	Maxine thanked all BN Board members who contributed to the successful day. Match Committee to review feedback.
	7. BN JUNIOR SQUAD: BN Female Junior Development Officer and Coach gave a verbal report on the success of the BN Junior Squad for 2022-23. The camaraderie and sportsmanship displayed at the last round of the Junior Statewide Challenge was outstanding and the dedication shown by all reflected in the results on the green.
	This season a award was presented to the 'Junior Player of the Championship Series', this was won by Hayden Strochnetter for his performances during the BN Junior Championships on and off the green. Training session will continue throughout the winter months.
