LIFE MEMBERSHIP OF BOWLS NORTH

GUIDELINES AND CRITERIA FOR NOMINATION

Honorary Life Membership should be awarded rarely and only where contribution stands out from the service of others.

The nominated person should:

- Have contributed in a variety of ways to the betterment of the sport of Bowls in Tasmania, including but not limited to administration, playing, or officiating for a minimum of ten (10) years.
- Have either contributed directly to the work of Bowls North or worked with Bowls North.
- Have displayed a commitment to the stated aims and objectives of Bowls North, Bowls Tasmania and Bowls Australia by working to a program of continuous improvement of the sport in the state of Tasmania and the Bowls North region.
- Have been a unifying and positive force within the game at club, regional and state level.
- Be a person of good character and known to be honest and reliable.
- Be a financial member of Bowls North.

A nomination must be made in writing and signed by the proposer and seconder of the nomination. The nomination must be accompanied by a testament to the work of the person nominated and information should detail examples of service and contribution that fit the guidelines.

The nomination and testament should be presented to the Board of Bowls North for consideration.

Life membership should be awarded on the approval of the Bowls North Board.
